8. Dear Alexandra,

Today is a great day! Right now, I am sitting in my room and writing this text, the sun is shining outside and my whole family is here! My sister is playing in her room, she is practising the guitar. My father is mowing the lawn in the garden and my mother is talking to my aunt Nancy in the living room.

They are sitting on the couch, and they are drinking coffee. My cousins are playing with their toys on the floor in front of them, they are only two years old.

Bye, Ethan
