8. The bank robbers

Inspector Green was in her office late at night when she got a phone call. She picked up the phone and heard a nervous voice. "Please, come quickly, there are robbers in the bank on Market Street!"

The inspector got up and drove to the bank. There she met an old man. "I went for a walk", explained the man, "and then I heard somebody inside." The man was afraid, but the inspector had an idea. She called more police officers and they all waited in front of and behind the bank. When the robbers left the house, the police arrested them.
