8. Hi Tim,

I guess you already know that I had an accident when I was swimming. We were at the pool when it suddenly started to rain. We were in hurry to get inside when I slipped on the wet ground. I fell and then I twisted my right ankle and nearly broke my leg. It hurt terribly! I was in shock because it was my first injury. Now I am at home. I have a cast and it is boring because I cannot move, and I don't know what I should do. I have already read two books and I have watched three films. Right now, I am playing my favourite video game, but I can't do that all the time. I am really happy when I will be fit again in two weeks!

Bye

Carl
