7. Hi Marie,

Today I visited a place which is surely one of the loveliest, if not the loveliest place in the whole world! As you know, we are in the Alps right now and we went hiking on a small path next to a waterfall. There were bridges, steps and ladders leading across it and one place had the most spectacular sight of the waterfall. Once we had reached the top, we found a charming hut with the friendliest people! The food and the drinks were not as expensive as I thought and the soup I ate was the best soup I have ever eaten!

Tomorrow we are going to climb another mountain, so I better rest and get some strength!

Bye

Rosa
