7. One of the most exciting experiences I ever had was when I visited London with my parents. But it was not the journey that was exciting, I met somebody famous at the airport! We landed at Heathrow airport in London, and we had to wait for our suitcases. Then suddenly I saw my favourite football player Ronaldo! He was walking past me with his family, I think he was also on holiday there! I did not know what to say, but my father reacted quickly and walked over to him and asked him for a photo. Now I have a picture of myself together with Ronaldo!
