Felix the Cat Finds a New Home

Felix the Cat can do as he pleases. But what the little stray wants more than anything is a home. The farm looks perfect, but the big shepherd dog frightens him. Felix isn't so sure about the old lady next door either. Cheeky and courageous, he continues his search. Will Felix find a suitable home?

Monster-Mania

The cabin boy Schorsch doesn't know whether it's the rattling skeleton with the captain's cap, whistle and shabby uniform that convinces him to join the ominous card game. Then there's the story of the vampire boy, who suddenly knocks on the window in the middle of the night because the monsters in the cemetery desperately need help. And the really creepy ghost who appears every full moon and throughout November and just wants to play ... in these three horror stories, the monsters are on the loose!

The Sorcerer's Apprentice

“The spirits that I’ve raised, my commands they do ignore”! In an exciting retelling by Erich Weidinger, the sorcerer’s apprentice Laurentz is learning his spellcraft from a skilled but extremely strict master magician. But as soon as the master leaves the castle for a few hours, Laurentz succumbs to curiosity, enters the forbidden chamber, and opens the forbidden magic book. Water begins to flow and a fantastic adventure begins ... The book also contains the original text!

Mermaid Stress and Deep-Sea Magic

What can you do when the sound of your morning gargling ritual lures a real mermaid into your bathroom? You ask your best friends to help, of course! But in this case, Xenia, the sprightly mermaid girl, is always at least one step ahead of Gili, Leo and Lu. Xenia can't wait to explore the exciting human world, and to Gili's dismay, keeps drawing attention to herself! But things get really adventurous when the mermaid needs help. Because then it's off down the plughole and down into the fascinating depths of the sea....
