Test 1

Listen and tick T (True) or F (False)

Girl: Hi, my name is Linda. I'm from Denver, Colorado. I'm 11 years old. This year I'm in class 1C. I'm new at this school. I like my new school very much.

Boy: Hi, my name is Richard. I'm from Glasgow. I'm 10 years old. I'm in year 7. My new classroom is very small.

Test 2

Listen and write down the numbers

On the ship there are twelve pirates. The children have got three magic stones. In the classroom there are thirteen desks. I can see five snakes. Sue has got twenty-four pencils. There are eight smart phones on the desk. We can see nineteen butterflies. There are eleven football players.

Test 3

1. Listen and tick the correct sentences:

Narrator: The telephone is ringing and Inspector Clueless answers the phone.

Clueless: This is Inspector Clueless. How can I help you?

Nutter: This is Mrs Nutter. My dog is missing. Can you find it?

Clueless: Yes, sure. I can look for it. What's the name of your dog?

Nutter: Its name is Rocket. It's a white and brown dog.

Clueless: Okay, I'll look for it.

Narrator: Two days later.
Clueless: Mrs Nutter?
Nutter: Yes? Have you got my dog, Inspector?
Clueless: Yes, I have.
Nutter: Where is it?
Clueless: It's here in my office.
Nutter: Is Rocket okay?
Clueless: Yes, Rocket is fine. I think he is a bit hungry. Can you come and get the dog, Mrs Nutter?
Nutter: Yes, I can. See you in half an hour, Inspector. You are the best!
Clueless: Thanks.

2. Listen and circle the correct word

In Tina's class there are 15 boys and 10 girls.

Look at Lena. She is really happy today. It's her birthday.

Tom is angry. He can't find his pen.

Tim is excited. He has got a new smart phone.

Mimi is bored. She looks at her watch.

Kate is nervous. She has a test today.

Peter is cold because the window is open.

Jim is hungry. He wants to eat his sandwich.

Carina is sad because she can't have a dog.

Test 4

Listen and tick T (True) or F (False)

There are nineteen children in the classroom. Mary is a nice girl. This is her friend Tina. Tina is nervous because there is a test today. And this is Peter. He is happy because he has got a new mobile phone. Next to the door there are Kate and Tom. They are best friends and play in a football team. Their friend Paul does not like football but he has a hobby. He collects stickers. Between the window and the board there is Susan. She is angry because her English book is not in her school bag.

Test 6

Listen to the children talking and circle T (True) or F (False)

Peter: Hi Ann, do you want an orange?

Ann: No thank you. I don't like oranges, I like apples. I eat an apple every day. And I like carrots but I never eat peppers. What food do you like, Kate?

Kate: I love Italian food. I often eat pizza and pasta. I don't really like fish but I often eat vegetables. I love spinach. Spinach is great!

Peter: Really? I hate spinach. My favourite vegetable is broccoli. But I also love things like hamburgers or hot dogs. In my family we often eat hamburgers.

Tom: We never have hamburgers. We often eat fish, rice and vegetables. I also eat a lot of fruit. I love bananas and I often eat kiwis.

Test 8

Listen to the dialogues and tick the correct answer

Teacher: Let's talk about birthdays today, when is your birthday?

Lisa: My birthday is on the 27th of January. The famous musician Mozart was born on the same day.

Teacher: Luke, when is your birthday?

Luke: My birthday is on the 21st of March. That's the beginning of spring.

Teacher: Marianne, is your birthday on the 4th of July?

Marianne: No, it isn't. In the USA they celebrate Independence Day on the 4th of July. My birthday is on the 23rd of July.

Teacher: Anthony, when is your birthday?

Anthony: My birthday is on the 24th of December. It's a bad day for a birthday because it's Christmas Eve. That means I only get presents once, not twice like other children.

Teacher: Does anybody know when we celebrate Valentine's Day?

Martha: I do. It's always in the 14th of February.

Teacher: That's true, Martha. Well done!

Test 9

Listen and write down what they are doing.Dialogue 1

Mum: Robert, can you take out the rubbish, please?

Robert: Sorry mum, I can't right now. I'm doing my homework!

Dialogue 2

- Dad: Amanda, the telephone's ringing. Can you please answer it?
 Amanda: Sorry dad, I can't. I'm baking a cake and my hands are full of flour!

Dialogue 3

- Carl: Jack, what are you doing at the moment?
 Jack: I'm repairing my bike. The light does not work.

Dialogue 4

- Sarah: Would you like to go for a walk with the dog?
 Lena: Sorry, I can't. I'm watching my favourite TV series.

Test 10

Listen to the dialogue and underline the correct word.

Dialogue 1

- Peter: Hi Gina, where are you going to be in the holidays?
 Gina: We are going to my grandparents. They live on a farm in Salzburg.
 Peter: On a farm? Cool! Have they got lots of animals?
 Gina: Yes, they've got 20 cows, three horses, 10 rabbits, two cats and a dog.
 Peter: Wow. I love animals. I'd like to have grandparents who live on a farm.

Dialogue 2

- Martin: I'm so excited. We are going to fly to England in the holidays.
 Sam: Who are you going with?
 Martin: With my parents and my sister.
 Sam: Really? Are you going to be in London too?
 Martin: Yes, we are going to see Big Ben and Buckingham Palace.
 Sam: Super! Maybe you'll see the Queen too.
 Martin: That would be cool!

Dialogue 3

- Luke: Sue, where are you going on holiday?
- Sue: We are going to Spain.
- Luke: Who is going to go with you?
- Sue: My parents and my two brothers.
- Luke: What are you going to do in Spain?
- Sue: We are going to visit my aunt. She lives in Madrid. And you?
Where are you going?
- Luke: We are going to stay at home this year.
- Sue: I see. I'm sure you are also going to have a lot of fun at home.
- Luke: Sure.

Test 12

Listen to Mrs Miller and tick the correct informationMrs Miller's day

I usually get up at 6 in the morning. Then I am in the bathroom for half an hour and at 6:30 I have breakfast. I always drink tea and eat toast. Then I go to school because I am a teacher. I often go to school by bike but sometimes I take my children to school. Then we go by car. School starts at 8 o'clock. Usually I come home from school at 14:00. Then I make lunch for me and my children. After lunch I often go shopping or take the dog for a walk. When I come home again I work for school. In the evening we often play a game together or we watch TV.
